

High School Advisor Job Description

First Graduate, a non-profit organization located in San Francisco, helps young people finish high school and become the first in their families to graduate from college ready to pursue careers that are meaningful to them. Through a combination of academic support and instruction, high school and college counseling, individual mentoring, and career exploration, First Graduate engages young people and their families in a 10+ year comprehensive program designed to increase knowledge, improve skills, and build confidence.

Position Overview

The High School Advisor plays a critical role in achieving First Graduate's mission by ensuring that our students have the information, guidance, and support they need in order to be strong candidates for college acceptance. The High School Advisor will work with a dedicated team to offer regular advising check-ins with students individually and in small groups, create and facilitate workshops for students on best practices for college preparation, and coordinate events, field trips and college tours.

Reporting to the Director of Programs and working closely with other members of the team, the High School Advisor must possess excellent communication, problem-solving, and project management skills. The ability to stay organized and manage multiple students on a caseload as well as multiple projects is a must.

Specific Responsibilities

- Advise a caseload of First Graduate students. Advising includes ensuring students know best practices in college preparation, giving social-emotional and wellness support, and supporting the student in problem-solving and goal-setting
- Meet with families and students to support them in understanding financial aid, the college application process, and building a college-going culture
- Keep detailed advising and case notes
- Support in the training of Advising Associates and Interns
- Plan and facilitate workshops that provide cohorts of students best practices in college preparation
- Plan and execute events, including college tours, career days, and student conferences
- Provide input on programmatic and strategic planning
- Maintain productive working relationships with First Graduate partners, which may include different high schools, other CBO's, and donors
- Other duties as assigned

Qualifications:

- Experience in college advising
- Knowledge of and experience in the college application process for California Community College, CSU system, UC system, and Common Application
- Knowledge of and experience with FAFSA, Dream Application, and other scholarship applications
- Knowledge of and experience with interpreting financial aid award letters for students and families
- Fluency in Spanish or Cantonese a plus
- Experience working with diverse student populations
- Experience managing multiple projects and excellent problem solving skills
- Excellent communication skills, both verbal and written
- Excellent computer skills, including Google applications, Microsoft Office and other commonly used software/web applications;
- Strong work ethic; highly self-motivated
- Bachelor's Degree from an accredited institution

Additional Requirements

- All employees are required to successfully pass a criminal background check via Department of Justice and FBI LiveScan fingerprinting
- All employees are required to successfully show proof of a recent negative TB test

Compensation

- Salary: $58,240
- Excellent benefits package, including full medical, dental, and 403(b) (employee contributions)

To Apply

Please send a cover letter and resume to: Eric Guico, Director of Programs, eguico@firstgraduate.org. Applications will be accepted until the position has been filled. Please note that due to the large number of applications received, only candidates who are invited to the first-round interview will be contacted.

Non-Discrimination Policy

All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to age, race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, disability, age, or protected veteran status.

Diversity Statement

First Graduate is committed to building a culturally diverse staff that reflects our student population; we strongly encourage applications from people of color and first-generation college graduates.
